LIST OF NAMES OF HOUSES & COTTAGES IN THE PARISH

(Some with the owners' names beside them - C1938)

(East Sussex Record Office Reference No. 382-14-20)

The 'document' comprises an envelope, with a King George V stamp addressed to my grandfather, as below: -

J. J. Newport, Esq.,
Clerk to the Parish Council,
Hooe Common,
Battle,
Sussex.

Inside are two copies of the same document (each copy comprises four sheets of paper, clipped together)

At top left, of the envelope, are the words: -

'URGENT SECRET'

The cancellation of the postage stamp appears to be dated 29 Sep 35 (it isn't clear so the year could be 1935 or 1938). However, the Record Office states that this is 'c1938' so we must accept that as true.

They list the names of houses in the village of Hooe and, in some cases, the name of the person who lived there.

I have no idea why this list was, apparently, so important as to have the words "URGENT- SECRET" on the envelope or to what use my grandfather or the Council intended to put it but it may well have had something to do with the impending war. I'm hoping that one of the Minutes of one of the Council Meetings will tell me why.

Note! The list was typed but some names had been added later, hand-written, in ink. These were: -

"Hillside" and "Burrgroves" added between "High House" and "Poplar Cottages - 1 (Lawrence)" and "Nut Brown Farm" added between "Glebe Cottages - 2 and "Parsonage Fm", all three on the "PEVENSEY ROAD, including HALLS CROSS" list
